LOCAL MATTERS.

WAKE COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Conservative-Democratic party of Wake county will hold a Convention at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, July 11th, to nominate candidates for the Legislature and for the county offices.
Townships are requested to hold meetings and send Delegates.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Yesterday was decidedly the warmest day of the season.
Mr. Southgate, the travelling agent of the Masonic Temple, is in the city.
The new Revenue Tobacco Stamps have arrived at Col. I. J. Young's office.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the City Commissioners to-morrow at 5 o'clock.

John Phenix, Chas. McKimmon and Robt. D. Johnson have returned to the city from a pleasure tour.

Col. I. J. Young and Hon. John pool will harangue the "faithful" together with such great men as desire, through curiosity, to attend on Thursday next at Oxford.

News from every section of the State is our ticket on August next.
Sam Phillips attempted a reply to Gov. Vance at Louisburg.

Notwithstanding the extreme warm weather, business continues brisk in the city and the merchants generally, especially those that advertise in the News, was bright and smiling countenances.

A Radical township pow-wow will be held in the Court House to-morrow evening, of which C. M. Farris is Chairman, to nominate delegates to the big county pow-wow which occurs on the 6th inst.

An old citizen was highly gratified to find at the market Saturday morning last a nice lot of partridge eggs, which he bought for his breakfast. Before cooking it was necessary to test the condition of the lot by opening one. The shell broke easily and out came a young snake that doubtless would have been hatched in a few hours had it remained in the nest.

HERE AND THERE.

It is hard to respect old age when one gets sold on a venerable pair of cheeks.

Some married people always go to bed quarrelling, yet they never fall out.

Why are sweethearts usually called honey? Because they are be(love)d.

Marrying a woman for her beauty is like eating a nightgown for its singing.

Woman first tempted man to eat—
He took to drinking on his own account.

When did the greatest rise in milk take place? When the cow jumped over the moon.

A bachelor friend suggests that in most marriages considerable soft soap, with strong lye, is used, and the whole operation ends in shaving.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder—
"of somebody else," sensibly adds a young lady.

MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSIONERS.

An adjourned meeting of the City Commissioners was held in the Mayor's office, Saturday evening, June 29th.
Present, Mayor Whitaker, Commissioners, Messrs. Churchill, Paria, Eliason, Stronach, Gorman and Upchurch.
The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.
The Examining Committee reported that they had examined the books of the former Chief of Police and found them all correct. The Committee was continued to examine the books of the Treasurer.

The stable lot on Wilmington street, heretofore reported as a nuisance, was referred to the City Attorney for his opinion in regard to what authority the Board could exercise in the premises.

Upon the application of Messrs. Nelson and Miller to move one of the side entrances to the station under the Market House at their own expense, the following Committee were appointed to make such arrangements with the applicants as in their judgment they thought necessary, and the action of the Committee to be final: the Mayor, Treasurer and Chief of Police.

The retail liquor license of W. V. Clifton was, on motion, transferred to W. N. Harris, on Hargett street.

Wm. M. Brown was relieved from the payment of double tax, having rendered a good excuse for not listing his property in due time.

The bond of the Weigh Master, Alvis Sorrel, was read and accepted.
The Board adjourned till Wednesday evening 5 o'clock.

THE GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Rev. H. T. Hudson, of this city, has been appointed canvassing agent for the above named College.

The College will be completed and ready for the reception of pupils by February next. It will hold two hundred and twenty-five pupils. It will be very commodious in its arrangements, beautiful in architecture, located in a healthful country, at one of the most accessible Railroad points in the State.

The trustees require $15,000 to complete the building and to raise this amount is the object of Mr. Hudson's appointment as well as to collect amounts already subscribed. It is not possible that the Methodists of the State will allow the work stopped on this building for lack of the necessary means to complete it. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Hudson is meeting with encouraging success in the good work—Let it go on.

A GOOD IDEA.—Messrs. C. D. Heatt & Co., have neatly fitted up the rear room of their extensive Boot and Shoe Store especially for ladies "fitting" room, an arrangement rendered necessary by increasing trade.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board was in session yesterday at the Poor House. On Wednesday next the regular meeting for general purposes will occur in their room at the Courthouse.

STILL THEY COME.—On Saturday

another lot of English immigrants arrived in the city and reported to the State Commissioner of Immigration, Col. Geo. Little, through whose influence they came. They are men of means, have families, and are well able to purchase farms, stock, &c., and go at once to work. We observed at Mrs. Tompkins' boarding house one family, a gentleman and wife, who have been married eight years and have six children, the likeliest we ever saw. This is a class of immigration we want to fill up our waste places.

These immigrants came via New York. We learn from the agent, Col. Little, that quite a number of others are daily expected from Liverpool via the Allan line, and will land at Norfolk. Col. Little will meet them at that point.

The following magistrates have been appointed by the Board of Commissioners Registrars for the several Townships:

Barton's Creek—J. H. Hutchison.
Buck Horn—W. B. Jones.
Cedar Fork—A. H. Page.
Houses Creek—Josiah King.
Little River—Riley Privett.
Marks' Creek—M. G. Todd.
Middle Creek—W. H. Stinson.
New Light—J. O. Harrison.
Panther Branch—Jas. H. Adams.
St. Matthews—J. A. Keith.
St. Mary's—J. G. Andrews.
Swift Creek—W. E. Pearce.
Wake Forest—G. A. Sanderford.
White Oak—A. C. Counsel.
Raleigh—R. C. Pettiford.
Eastern Ward—D. A. Wicker.
Middle Ward—Wesley Whitaker.
Western Ward—Norfolk Dunston.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col. J. L. Bridges, one of the most prominent lawyers of eastern Carolina is at the Yarrowburgh.

Gen. Wiley D. Jones is quite ill at his residence in the country.

Hon. Daniel R. Goodloe, of Warrenton, arrived in the city last evening, and is stopping at the Yarrowburgh.

Blair Burwell, Esq., of the extensive mercantile firm of A. L. Hunt & Co., Baltimore, paid our sanctum a visit yesterday evening.

M. J. Hawkins, Esq., of Warrenton county, son of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, took the degree of Bachelor of Laws at the recent Commencement of the University of Virginia.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Monday, July 1, 1872, before His Honor, WESLEY WHITAKER, Mayor.
John Woodis, drunk and disorderly Saturday night. Fined $2 and discharged.
Alexander Miller, colored, for smoking in Church Sunday night. Fined $2.

RELEASED.—George Baugh, convicted at the special term of Wake Superior Court of an assault on another colored man with deadly weapons, and sentenced to six months imprisonment in the county jail, was on yesterday discharged from custody, having served out his term of imprisonment.

COMMENCEMENT.—The editors acknowledge their indebtedness for an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of Lowburg Female College, which takes place on the 11th instant, and if it is possible we will have a representative on hand.

SUNDAY.—Notwithstanding the extreme warm weather, all the churches were well attended both morning and evening.

The streets were quiet and dull, only one police arrest, that of a colored man that insisted upon smoking his cigar in one of the colored churches.

THANKS.—The Editors of the News return their thanks to the Superintendent for an invitation to attend the Baptist Sunday School Excursion to Lockville. The News will be represented on the occasion.

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872.
Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Home Sewing Machine."
We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families, it is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, and of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of ticking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

SUNDAY NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Valmaseda-Ceballos-The Spanish Bank.

NEW YORK, June 30.
The Herald's Madrid special says the resignation of Capt. Gen. Valmaseda has been accepted. Ceballos acts temporarily.

The government announces its intention to introduce important measures for the relief of the Spanish bank in Havana. It decrees that the notes of that bank shall be received as legal tender of government dues.

New York Imports of Sugar.

NEW YORK, June 30.
The imports of sugar last week were valued at a million of dollars.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 30.

It appears from an official statement just prepared at the office of Internal Revenue that on the first of May the quantity of spirits in bond was eight millions, four hundred and seventy-two thousand, four hundred and seventy-seven gallons. The number of distilleries running June 29th was two hundred and fifteen. Daily capacity two hundred and seventy-seven thousand six hundred and eighty-two gallons. The decrease in the number of distilleries since the first of June is twenty, while the increase in the capacity of these in operation is nine thousand eight hundred and sixty gallons. The decrease pertains to small establishments. The increase of production is accounted for from the fact that the tax is now sixty-one cents, but on and after the first of August, by the new law, it will be seventy cents.

It is probable, judging from the information received, there will be a still further increase of manufactures so as to fill the bonded warehouses between now and the first of August. Twelve volumes of Kuklux testimony have been printed and delivered at the folding room of the capitol, three more are to be added, making in all about eight thousand printed octavo pages.

The treasury buys a million of bonds each Wednesday and sells a million in gold each Thursday during July. The treasury has called in a million and a half three per cent. temporary loan certificates.

NOON DISPATCHES.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, July 1.

The weather last night and to day is intensely hot, the thermometer continuing at about 90 degrees. Reports from the Eastern States represent the heat as being very great yesterday.

The World to-day says Greeley's nomination at Baltimore is a foregone conclusion, and there are no indications of a formidable revolt. It adds, there will be but two candidates. For our part we shall advise nobody to vote for Grant and between the remaining alternative of voting for Greeley or staying at home, we have no counsel to offer. Our duty may more clearly appear after the canvass has made some progress.

Long lists of sun stroke victims are published this morning.

The Federal Council of International held a meeting yesterday.

The International Congress to be held in Philadelphia next week, is to seek the establishment of a union of all the discordant elements of the association. The general council of London has suspended all English speaking sections of the United States.

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA DELEGATES.

Hon. D. M. Barringer, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, has secured accommodations at the "Carrollton House," for the North Carolina Delegates to the National Democratic Convention, which meets in Baltimore on the 9th of July.

VANCE AND PHILLIPS IN LOUISBURG.

We conversed yesterday evening with a gentleman from Franklin who heard the discussion in Louisville, on Thursday last between Vance and Phillips. He says it was universally conceded that Gov. Vance's victory was complete. The charges that Phillips attempted to make against the Democrats were in every instance turned upon the Radicals.

The people of Franklin say if Phillips is the ablest speaker the Radicals can boast of, they must have the weakest set that ever espoused the cause of any party.

It is rumored that Gen. Roger A. Pryor wishes to purchase a home and reside in Charlottesville, Va.

THE GREAT POPULAR WAVE.

Owing to the great interest we feel in the State election, we have had but little to say recently on the subject of national politics. It is now a foregone conclusion, that Greeley will be accepted by the Democratic National Convention that meets in Baltimore on the ninth of July.

The Tribune claims that twenty eight States have already elected Delegates favorable to the Cincinnati movement. The States represent six hundred and twenty electoral votes. This number is one hundred and thirty-two more than the requisite two thirds. In the list of States published in the Tribune, the State of North Carolina is not included. It is understood that our Delegates will be unanimous for Greeley at Baltimore.

The great popular tide, at the North is surging in Greeley's favor. There is no enthusiasm for Grant—while Greeley's friends are sanguine and jubilant.

After his endorsement at Baltimore we shall expect to see the great popular wave of sentiment set steadily in Greeley's favor. We believe that thousands and tens of thousands of Republicans will flock to the standard of Reform and aid in bearing the Cincinnati ticket on to victory in November next.

Grant has proved a great failure as a statesman. His Administration is very unpopular with the Northern people. The ablest Republicans at the North—Trumbull, Schurz and Sumner, and hundreds of others, are in arms against the gift taker, and their efforts will succeed in dividing the party to such an extent, that it will be quite an easy matter for the Democrats to decide the Presidential question by casting their votes for the least objectionable of the Republican candidates.

Greeley's prospects are growing better day after day. After the 9th of July, we will witness such a current in his favor as will make the foundations of Radicalism tremble and shake with apprehension. The great ground swell will rise higher and higher, and the campaign of 1872 may probably be like that of 1840, and may end in placing the white-lion philosopher of Chippewa in the Presidential mansion of the United States.

VANCE IN NASH—EXCORTATION OF SAMUEL P. PHILLIPS.

Read the brief account of Gov. Vance's great speech at Nashville, on Friday.

Samuel P. Phillips, Esq., went down to answer Gov. Vance, but he has returned to Raleigh, a sadder, if not a wiser man.

Gov. Vance's reply was withering, crushing, exhorting. Phillips was played alive.

We venture the assertion that he will never attempt to meet Vance again in public discussion. Gov. Vance's reply was so triumphant that Phillips broke down completely, and did not attempt a rejoinder.

Phillips, badly wounded, was taken off the field by his friend, Sheriff Timothy F. Lee, and brought back to Raleigh.

From the rising Vance gave him at Statesville, in the campaign of 1870, we did not think the would-be Attorney General would ever have the temerity and cheek to meet the Governor before the people again.

Phillips is a failure as a political leader and speaker. We admit his great talents and ability as a lawyer, but his attempt to discuss politics with Vance argues a great want of common sense on his part.

He will remember to his dying day the exhortation he received at the hands of Governor Vance, at Nashville on Friday last.

On that occasion, the Governor made one of the greatest speeches of his life. His inimitable wit and fund of anecdote would ever and anon produce roars of laughter, while his grand and eloquent appeals in behalf of Constitutional liberty called forth round after round of applause, and created the wildest enthusiasm.

THE SPEAKING AT WILSON.

An immense crowd greeted Vance, Ransom and Separk, at Wilson, on Saturday last.

Phillips had promised his Radical friends to follow Vance through his Eastern campaign, but he was so badly used up at Nashville on Friday, that he reconsidered his rash resolution, and concluded to return to Raleigh!

The Democratic fires in the East are ablaze, and great enthusiasm is manifested. Such deep feeling among the people has not been manifested since the close of the war. Every indication gives token of a great popular uprising against Radicalism.

Let our people everywhere take courage and press on to the great victory before them.

If the opponents of Radicalism in North Carolina will come out and vote on the first Thursday in August, we will redeem the State by twenty thousand majority.

GEO. H. SNOW, ESQ.

The Franklin Courier speaks in highly complimentary terms of the Masonic Address delivered by Geo. H. Snow, Esq., in Louisville, on the 24th inst. The occasion was a most interesting one, and we are pleased to hear that our townsman acquitted himself so creditably.

IS IT IGNORANCE?

There has been a bolt from the Greeley movement and nomination. A number of leading gentlemen from some twenty States met in New York last week, and after consultation, presented the name of Hon. Wm. M. Groesbeck, of Ohio, for President, and Frederick Law Olmstead, of New York, for Vice President.—E. City Carolinian.

We shall be charitable enough to believe that the Editor of the Carolinian is really ignorant of the facts of the case connected with the Fifth Avenue Hotel conference.

The leading men of that conference, to-wit, Messrs. Trumbull, Schurz and others made speeches in favor of Greeley, and when the roll of States was called, it was found that the sentiment was decidedly in favor of accepting Greeley. The conference adjourned without bringing out an opposition candidate.

After the adjournment of the conference, a few of the disaffected, not more than twenty five in number, brought out Groesbeck and Olmstead. The latter has declined the use of his name, and Groesbeck's friends have telegraphed he will not allow the use of his name against any candidate that may be put forth at Baltimore.

Now when the Carolinian asserts that leading gentlemen from twenty states presented the name of Groesbeck and Olmstead for President and Vice President, it asserts what is palpably untrue. It should inform itself better before attempting to enlighten the public.

The Fifth Avenue conference was in favor of Greeley as a body.

ROBBINS' CANVASS.

We learn that Maj. W. M. Robbins, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Seventh District, is making a most able, effective and brilliant canvass. His opponent, D. M. Furches, is a man of no ability or shrewdness, and is no match for Robbins.

The reports that have appeared in the Statesville American, purporting to give accounts of the discussion between them, are notoriously ridiculous in that they attempt to create the impression that Furches always got the better of Robbins in the debate. Such transparent misrepresentations can only have the effect to show the utter unreliability and mendacity of Radical statements.

From several gentlemen who have heard Robbins and Furches, we learn that the superiority of the former over the latter is very striking.

Maj. Robbins is doing a great work in his District. He is arousing the honest masses—many of whom will vote for the first time since the war, and they will vote for Robbins and his whole State ticket.

THE ELECTION LAW.

We will publish to-morrow a careful analysis of the new election law, compiled by a member of the Conservative Executive Committee.

This law is very important and should be well understood by the public.

EDITORIAL EXCURSION.

(Special Correspondence Daily News.)
WATERTOWN, N. Y.,
June 27th, 1872.

Leaving Geneva Monday morning, we arrived at 10 o'clock in Syracuse, a place of some 50,000 inhabitants and rich in its manufacturing interests.

We were most cordially received by the citizens and members of the press, were escorted in carriages throughout the city, visited the extensive salt works, located there, and at 1 o'clock were banquetted at the Globe House, where wine and sentiment were again the order of the day, the interchange of feeling being of that pleasant and earnest character which has thrived so many times within the past two weeks. We cannot leave this place without alluding more especially to its salt works and lager-breweries. The former is quite extensive, some 8,000,000 of bushels being annually made here, affording a revenue of between three and four million of dollars. The State owns all the works, and receives as a rental thereon one percent, upon each bushel made, making the snug sum of $80,000. The breweries are large and extensive, and some 80,000 barrels of lager are annually made and shipped from them. The city is rapidly growing and being improved in appearance, and bids fair to rival in beauty any in the State.

Leaving Syracuse at 2 o'clock, we arrived in

ROME,

after some two hours run, and here we met with a large delegation of the New York Press Association en route for Watertown. We were escorted, headed by an elegant band, to Sink's Opera House, where a most sumptuous repast had been prepared, and our number having now reached some two hundred, including the ladies accompanying the New York Editors, ample justice was done. For a short while speechifying was again the order of the day, one of our speakers facetiously commencing his remarks "Romans, countrymen and lovers." We did not tarry here more than an hour and a half, when we again embarked, in elegant palace cars which had been furnished us, for a beautiful and thriving city of some 12,000 inhabitants, located some twenty miles from Lake Ontario and evidently a place of much business. Here we became the guest of the

WATERTOWN,

NEW YORK PRESS ASSOCIATION,

and on arriving at the depot we were met by a large concourse of citizens, a band of music discoursing sweet music as we proceeded to the hotel. The Southern Editors were quartered at the Woodruff House, and for three days we have been most abundantly cared for by those who so kindly invited us to participate in the deliberations and festivities of this their annual gathering.

On Monday morning we visited their assembly room, where was gathered some 125 of those who wield the pen in the State, and we must do them the justice to say that we have seldom seen a finer looking or more intelligent looking body of men. Back of the stage was erected a large canvass containing the following: A large pen encircling the top, with the word "power" immediately under it, with two large hands clasped, one upon the "North" and upon the other "South." This was intended both as a compliment and a welcome to the Southern editors.

The forenoon was devoted to business, but in the opening of the exercises in the afternoon, the following song of greeting to the Southern guests was rendered with fine effect by the Watertown Glee Club, the whole audience joining in the chorus:

THE NORTH TO THE SOUTH.

By ARTHUR, OF NEW YORK.

With muffled roar the white waves fall
On miles of yellow sand,
And gentle do the sweet winds blow
Across the level land.
Where, blessed by mild and mellow moons,
Softest softest airs,
And sweet by fays, satyrs, noons,
The lovely South-land lies,
Chorus:—
The lovely South-land lies, my friends,
The lovely South-land lies,
And sweet by fays, satyrs, noons,
The lovely South-land lies.

If colder is our Northern clime,
Our hearts are warm and true;
Since we are brethren of the Quill,
What matters gray or blue?
So, drifted past the storm of war
To isles of peaceful calm,
The love we give greeting to the sea,
The pine unto the palm.

Chorus:—
The pine unto the palm, my friends,
The pine unto the palm,
And wide our difference be,
Yet in the kingdom of the mind
We'll cherish always, firm and strong,
And therefore, while the world goes round,
In every season's stress,
We'll cherish always, firm and strong,
The union of the Press.

Chorus:—
The union of the Press, my friends,
The union of the Press,
We'll cherish always, firm and strong,
The union of the Press.

After which the regular annual address was delivered by S. H. Parker, Editor of the Geneva Gazette, in which the following allusion was made to the Southern excursionists:

"I may not conclude without expressing the sincere pleasure which I feel—which, my brethren of the Northern Press, I know you all feel—in the presence and companionship to day of so many of our fraternity from the sunny South. A right glad and hearty welcome to you, fellow knights of the quill and scissor—welcome to the hospitalities of our homes and municipalities—to full communion in all the doings and pleasures of our annual reunion. May we forget in the reciprocal joys of this occasion, that we were ever other than friends and brothers, sharing alike in one common heritage, God-appointed to one common destiny.

"Thanks, a thousand thanks, to the glorious old leader whose generous heart conceived, whose influence and indomitable energy have enabled him to carry out this grand scheme for your needed recreation and enjoyment. Follow your leader, and fear no danger," even with the same confiding faith that the children of Israel followed the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, conducting their safety in the journeyings out of the wilderness into the promised land. Noble Col. Hotchkiss—never so happy as when surrounded by and making happy his friends. A Northerner by birth—a Southerner by adoption—a Cosmopolitan by nature and impulse, whom Webster defines as nowhere a stranger, having a home in every place—and I may add in every generous heart that knows him—how much is our country indebted to him for measures and means of conciliating and healing sectional animosities growing out of the regretful past. For has he not grasped and united in action upon a common fulcrum of peace and good will, the great levers which move the world?

On yesterday we had an elegant excursion up the passing the largest number of the Thousand Islands for which that river is noted, enjoyed the beautiful and sometimes wild scenery to be found on either the Canadian or American side, floated now in the Canadian waters and then in the American, had both the British and American flags floating over the noble little steamer that sped us on, and for awhile we did not know whether we were "loyal" citizens of the Queen's domains or of Grant's monarchy. Some four hours were occupied in the passage up the river, which were most heartily enjoyed, some one hundred and fifty ladies being aboard and swift feet kept time with the lively music discoursed by the band.

At 1 o'clock we reached Pullman's Island, a most delightful retreat, and here we found rustic tables spread under the shade of the trees loaded with an abundance of everything that was good in the eating line, the whole entertainment having been furnished by State Senator Winslow, from the St. Lawrence District. Among we turn our steps down the St. Lawrence, and the "evening was as the morning." The "boys in grey," or the Southern "rebs" present fully sustained the gallantry of the South, and many pleasant moments were spent between the ladies of the North and the Southern excursionists during the day.

During the morning a meeting of the New York and the Southern editors was held in the cabin of the boat with a view to bringing about a friendly talk between the Major Editors who last year attended Major Hotchkiss to the South and the Southern excursionists now accompanying the Major. Some hour was occupied in speechifying, the kindest feeling having been exchanged between the representatives of the New York press and those of the South.

Since writing the above, we have attended the

held to-night in the large skating rink in this place, and it was one of the most magnificent occasions we have attended for many years. The room is large enough to accommodate 2,000 persons, and it was well filled with the belles and beaux of this place and the many visitors here. We have seldom seen a room more handsomely arranged, 3,000 feet of festooning being used in the adorning, with wreaths, arbors and festoons of water here and there, brilliantly illuminated with excellent incandescence at each end of the hall, one of these being "The North to the South —welcome the Press." The evening passed most pleasantly to all, and will long be remembered by the Southern excursionists.

We leave to-morrow (Friday) morning to attend the grand jubilee there on Saturday. We will be accompanied by some 30 members of the New York Press Association, together with Mr. Hall, of this place, its President, who will have immediate charge of the whole party. A pleasant time is anticipated, as we have received a special invitation to be present. This will necessarily delay our return home a couple of days, as this part of the programme has only been arranged to-day, and we will return through Pennsylvania the first of next week.

FOR BOSTON,

VANCE'S CAMPAIGN IN THE EAST.

HIS GREAT SPEECH AT NASHVILLE.

Samuel F. Phillips attempts to Answer Vance.

HIS GREAT FAILURE.

VANCE'S TRIUMPHANT REPLY.

Phillips has Nothing More to Say!

A Great Day for the Democracy of Old Nash.

[Correspondence of the Daily News.]

NASHVILLE, N. C., June 28.

Governor Vance addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here to-day. He spoke two hours, and made one of the best speeches I ever heard. His reception here was a perfect ovation. The people, old and young, flocked around him and grasped him by the hand. The enthusiasm was unbounded.

As Governor Vance exposed the corruptions and rascality of the Radical party, and appealed in the most eloquent manner to his hearers to come to the rescue of their liberties and their country, applause after applause resounded through the old court-house. It is useless to attempt to give any synopsis of this great speech. It was grand, eloquent, full of wit, and had a telling effect. I wish every voter in North Carolina could have heard it.

After Gov. Vance concluded, Mr. Samuel F. Phillips, the great Radical light, commenced an answer. He began in an up-hill manner and at the close of his discourse he went tumbling down the hill and has barely reached the bottom yet, although Gen. Tim Lee carried off his wounded patient from the field for Raleigh, immediately after the discussion.

Phillips worried through two mortal hours without eliciting the slightest applause, and with all his ingenuity his speech fell perfectly still-born. It was a complete failure as an answer to Vance. Indeed Phillips did not try to answer Vance. His speech consisted chiefly of generalities, denunciations of Ku Klux, and apologies for the crimes and robberies of the Radical Legislature which he admitted, but charged that Democrats were equally responsible because Sweden, a Democrat, had bought up the unscrupulous members. He said the Democrats who had the intelligence and honesty would not join the Republican party and go for negro suffrage, and therefore they had to elect out of such material as they had. Hence he proclaimed the Radicals were not responsible nor to blame for the crimes committed by their party, for it was not known that they would do so badly and they were not elected for that purpose. This was an open confession.

Mr. Phillips had no denunciations for the Lowreys but labored away at Horace Greely, at a heavy rate. Said the Democrats would commit suicide by voting for him. In reply to this, Gov. Vance, told us we could not commit suicide but it would be wholesale murder of the most corrupt, tyrannical and despotic party that ever disgraced any age or any country.

Phillips' answer made no impression. If he fell vs Vance around the campaign, we will carry the State by twenty-five thousand majority. Vance's rejoinder was a complete success. He thoroughly riddled Phillips' sophistry. Phillips declined to rejoin he had nothing more to say.

The amount of gross products of manufactures in the United States last year was $4,000,000,000.

The gas lamps at the government arsenal at Woolwich, England, are now lighted by electricity.

M. Victorien Sardou, the French Dramatist, is to marry Mlle. Soulie, the actress.

Henry J. Smith, sheriff of Henrico county, Va., died on Friday evening last.

FOR SALE. VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (522) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs Tract, at the M. Beck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Over-seer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (1/4) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, etc., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, lean and chocolate-surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

LOUISBURG, June 12th, 1872. June 15-1f. A. S. PERRY.

The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $2,000,000. 7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS. "HOPE ON, HOPE EVER."

"Hope on, hope ever!"
Every dark cloud
That hides the bright sun's golden beams,
In time may show a silver lining.
Bright as life's morning radiant dreams,
The wintry storm, though laden with annoy,
Clears the earth from blight and rot,
And, when the fresh buds burst its bonds,
Is soon forgot.

"Hope on, hope ever!"
Time is passing—
Day succeeds day with rapid speed;
Our brief life is the only season.
To plant, to plow, to sow, good seed,
And as we sow so shall we harvest.
Bring the glad sheaves of golden grain;
Or the dank weeds of woe and waiting—
Life's heritage of joy or pain.

"Hope on, hope ever!"
In creation
Man hath no lasting place on earth;
As hour by hour, the Present ever
Yields to the Future's mystic birth.
The Past may hang its funeral flowers,
Closing the tomb with garlands fresh and gay;
"Hope on, hope ever!" still shall be our Motto
To lend us to eternal day.
